Sir:

REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION AND ENTRY OF POWER OF ATTORNEY
PREVIOUSLY PRESENTED WITH CERTIFICATE
REQUIRED BY 37 C.F.R. §3.73(b)

The Notice Regarding Power of Attorney mailed 09/28/2006 is clearly erroneous.

The Notice alleges that the Power of Attorney filed August 31, 2006 omits the Certificate required by 37 C.F.R. §3.73(b) and, somewhat redundantly, also indicates that the person signing for the assignee has omitted their empowerment to sign on behalf of the assignee.

Brief inspection of the two-page "Revocation and New Power of Attorney" filed August 31, 2006 will indicate that the section bridging the two pages of this document and entitled "Certificate Under 37 C.F.R. §3.73(b) does include the Certificate required by this section of the regulations and does include an empowerment by the person signing on behalf of the assignee to make such signature.

If there is some peculiar detail of the already submitted Certificate Under 37 C.F.R. §3.73(b) that is allegedly not in compliance with the regulations, then please note with particularity exactly what the alleged deficiency might be.

Under the circumstances, the Revocation and New Power of Attorney presented on behalf of one of the assignees should be accepted.

It is also noted that a similar Revocation and Power of Attorney on behalf of the other assignee (S.A.E. Afikim Computerized Dairy Management System) was duly submitted on October 16, 2006.

Accordingly, new Revocation and New Power of Attorney forms duly executed on behalf of each of the two co-assignees and each including an appropriate Certificate Under 37 C.F.R. §3.73(b) have already been filed.

Respectfully submitted,

NIXON & VANDERHYE P.C.
